

Apps for Educators

An Online Course from ideastream®

Summary

Apps – what are they and how can they be used in the classroom? As more people have access to smaller, mobile devices like iPads and Smartphones, Apps will become more & more popular both in the mainstream and in education. As educators, we need to instruct our students on how to use these mobile devices as learning tools. Join us as we explore Apps available for all curriculum areas and grade levels!
