

Bullying in the Digital Age

WVIZ/Ideastream® Online Education

A Four Week Online Course

Date

See website for multiple start dates!

Cost

$95.00

Location

Online

Graduate Credit

1 graduate credit available for $150

Course Summary

Cyber bullying is like having a gigantic megaphone. Bullies can spread vitriol quickly and anonymously. Parents, school administrators, and law enforcement are all concerned as law suits and even teen suicides have brought awareness to the issue. This online course takes an in depth look at bullying in the digital age and techniques to use to deal with the issue.

How to Register

Visit: www.ideastream.org/Education

Scroll down to the information box and click on the Online tab. Click on "Learn more about our offerings." Click on Bully In The Digital Age and then the registration button. (On the left side of the page.)

For Additional Course Information

Ann Ebersole at (216) 916-6364 or ann.ebersole@ideastream.org

Registration or Payment Information

Nancy Burce at (216)916-6422 or nancy.burce@ideastream.org

